EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Matthew Tropper on 8/19/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

- Claim 1 line 6, "for each user" has been replaced by –from each user— to make it clear that the user specifies the anticipated area.
- Claim 10 line 9, "for each user" has been replaced by –from each user— to make it clear that the user specifies the anticipated area.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-3, 5-12, 14-18 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: McCall teaches a preferred customer discounting program where consumers receive discounts for fuel purchases according to their stored account parameters, including discounted fuel price. Oil Week teaches a consumer incentive program for fuel purchases whereby discounts are given in the form of rebates. It is also believed to have been obvious to have provided varying discounts across the country in associated with known variations in geographic fuel pricing. Baker III (US5864822) teaches providing discounted travel related benefits that depend on the user inputting travel details such as destination. PR Newswire (Oldsmobile offers free Amoco gasoline purchase incentive," Jan 31, 1989, PR Newswire, 0131NY102) teaches a fuel discount program that is valid only in certain geographic areas.

However, there is no teaching the in the cited art to receive from the user his anticipated geographic fuel purchasing area and to apply a first stored discount price when he purchases fuel within that area and to apply a second stored discount price when he purchases fuel outside of that area.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
